

With training courses tailor-made for the specific user requirements, FIS offers you a wide range of SAP training programs. The training courses address different target groups. Depending on the current situation in your company, you can choose between standardized seminars and training courses individually tailored to your requirements.

1 SAP MM overview course (level 1, course 100)

Learning target: Transfer of knowledge of the SAP standard functions with focus on logistical chain

Prerequisite: little SAP knowledge required (navigation)

Duration: 2 days

Training content:

- Organizational structures
- Procurement basics (purchase order, goods/invoice receipt)
- Material master data
- Vendor master data
- Purchasing info records
- Price determination/conditions
- Message determination
- Evaluation
- Posting relative to the cost
- Procurement of consumable materials
- Consumption-based MRP
- Conversion of purchase requisitions
- Sales order
- Process flow: Individual purchase order
- Returns monitor
- Process flow: Individual purchase order via third-party process
- Process flow: Procurement of stock goods

2 Individual training course

FIS organizes the training course and you define the main topics.

The FIS training professionals tailor the contents of individual training courses to the requirements of your industry, organization or internal business processes. Trainers with long-standing professional experience and practical knowledge provide you with knowledge on the selected topics.

For further information, please send an e-mail to the FIS Education Team.

SAP MM Training Courses

Organizational information

Training course dates

Please ask for the current dates.

Training location

The training courses will take place on your premises.

Contact

FIS Informationssysteme und Consulting GmbH

Röthleiner Weg 1

97506 Grafenrheinfeld

kontakt@fis-gmbh.de

www.fis-gmbh.de