

With training courses tailor-made for the specific user requirements, FIS offers you a wide range of SAP training programs. The training courses address different target groups. Depending on the current situation in your company, you can choose between standardized seminars and training courses individually tailored to your requirements.

1 SAP SD overview course (level 1, course 110)

Learning target: Transfer of knowledge of the SAP standard functions based on the template processes

Prerequisite: little SAP knowledge required (navigation)

Duration: 2 days

Training content:

- SD organizational structures
 - SD organizational units
 - Client, company code
 - Sales organization, distribution channel, division, sales area
 - Plant, storage location, shipping point
- Overview of SD process
 - Sales order process
 - Documents in the SD process, document structure
 - Create and process order, outbound delivery
 - Post picking and goods issue
 - Create and edit billing document, post payment receipt
 - Returns and goods receipt
 - Document flow in the SAP system
 - List of quotations
 - List of orders
- Overview of master data
 - Customer master data
 - Material master data
 - Customer material info
 - Message master data
 - Incompleteness log
 - Condition master data in pricing

2 Individual training course

FIS organizes the training course and you define the main topics.

The FIS training professionals tailor the contents of individual training courses to the requirements of your industry, organization or internal business processes. Trainers with long-standing professional experience and practical knowledge provide you with knowledge on the selected topics.

For further information, please send an e-mail to the FIS Education Team.

SAP SD Training Courses

Organizational information

Training course dates

Please ask for the current dates.

Training location

The training courses will take place on your premises.

Contact

FIS Informationssysteme und Consulting GmbH

Röthleiner Weg 1

97506 Grafenrheinfeld

kontakt@fis-gmbh.de

www.fis-gmbh.de