SAP Extended Warehouse Management
Training Portfolio

FIS

In this training course, the FIS Education team provides you with an overview of the required knowledge in the SAP Extended Warehouse Management (EWM) area for daily business practice.

After completing the course, users are able to independently handle the most important SAP EWM processes and have a solid basic understanding.

SAP EWM overview

Target group: Project managers, key users from the SD and Materials Management areas

Learning target: Teaching the basics of SAP Extended Warehouse Management incl. application examples directly in the system

Prerequisite: SAP basic knowledge (logistics)

Duration: 2-3 days (after consultation)

Training content:

- SAP EWM system environment/architecture
- Processes and functions
- SAP ERP integration into SAP EWM
- Structure elements and master data
- Warehouse task and warehouse order
- Warehouse Management Monitor, radio frequency (mobile dialogs)
- Goods receipt
- Goods issue
- Storage control
- Posting change, stock transfer, material reservation on cost center
- Replenishment
- Physical inventory

Organizational information

Training course dates
Please ask for the current dates.

Training location
The training courses will take place on your premises or on the FIS premises.

Contact
FIS Informationssysteme und Consulting GmbH
Röthleiner Weg 1
97506 Grafenrheinfeld
kontakt@fis-gmbh.de www.fis-gmbh.de